

1 provision, except by a majority vote instead of a two-thirds
2 vote. That motion was carried 13 to six.

3 There was then a motion to reconsider the last
4 motion. It was adopted and the motion was reconsidered.
5 There was then a motion to substitute for that motion a 6 motion to refer the matter back to the Committee for further
7 study. That was passed by acclamation.

8 JUDGE ADKINS: Mr. Chairman, may I now withdraw
9 my motion and make a new one?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir, with the consent of 11 your seconder.

12 MRS. BOTHE: I consent.

13 JUDGE ADKINS: May I propose an Amendment to 14 Section 13, as contained in the Legislative Report of the 15 Committee dated October 14th, which will cause the last 16 sentence of that Section to read as follows: Each house may 17 exercise power to compel the attendance of testimony of wit-
18 nesses and the production of records and papers, and herein
19 insert the words, Germane to legislation pending either be-20 fore such House as a whole or before any Committee thereof,
21 provided that the General Assembly shall have by law
