

1 protected rights of witnesses and their records and papers,
2 and here is new language, provided such action shall be 3 taken by two-thirds vote of the House exercising the power.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Adkins, would you be willing 5 to submit two separate motions, divide your motion, and 6 have the first part, Other than the two-thirds vote, in one
7 motion and then the last phrase requiring a two-thirds vote
8 in the second motion? I say that because I rather suspect
9 that there are those who would favor some of the additions 10 you make.

11 JUDGE ADKINS: You think I've got a better
12 chance to get half. All right.

13 MRS. BOTHE: I second it.

14 MR. MILLER: May I ask a question? Does that 15 say to compel rather than subpoena?

16 JUDGE ADKINS: It says power to compel testimony
17 of witnesses.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: I couldn't take it down as quickly
19 as you read it.

20 JUDGE ADKINS: I struck out the word, its, power 21 to compel testimony of witnesses and the production of
