

1 THE CHAIRMAN: The motion before you is to add a
2 clause at the end of the sentence, And provided such action
3 shall be taken by a two-thirds vote of the House exercising
4 such power. Mrs. Freedlander, I think you were wanting to 5 speak on that? Somebody over here had their hand up.

6 MR. BOND: I changed my mind.

7 MRS. FREEDLANDER: I seconded it.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Any discussion? Mr. Martineau.

9 MR. MARTINEAU: I'd like to ask Judge Adkins, 10 does this mean, getting back to this discussion of the 11 difference between a subpoena and compelling, that before
12 the Committee could issue a summons, it would have to get 13 the approval, or are you thinking that there is some 14 authority of distinction? Actually, I would be thinking 15 they could issue the summons and move along without getting 16 the approval of anybody, but it's only a question of getting 17 an order that they will be held in contempt if they fail
18 to comply.

19 JUDGE ADKINS: I'm not sure if that question
20 wouldn't more properly be referred to the Committee. My 21 interpretation would be that there would be nothing to
