

1 have those words in, if I sense --

2 THE CHAIRMAN: I'm not expressing any opinion at 3 the moment. All I'm anxious to do is to make sure that the 4 intention of the Commission is expressed in words, and I am 5 saying that as this is now amended and read, in order to 6 compel the attendance of witnesses before Legislative Com-
7 mittees, two things are necessary, one, the Legislature must 8 have passed and the Governor signed a law providing for the 9 protection of all witnesses generally appearing before the 10 Legislature or Legislative Committees. If that has been 11 done, then you must have a two-thirds vote to compel John 12 Jones to appear before a particular Committee.

13 MR. MILLER: I think that's what we voted on.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: All right, there is no dissent.
15 Mr. Scanlan?

16 MR. SCANLAN: I was going to say that was the 17 precise intention of the Committee in drafting that 18 language. Of course, at the time, we did not have in the 19 two protections that have been added today, namely, the 20 protection raised in Judge Adkins' second motion, two-21 thirds vote, and secondly, the further Constitutional
