

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Any comment? Any question?

2 Mr. Miller.

3 MR. MILLER: Not a comment or question. I would 4 like to make a motion that this record that we're sub-
5 mitting as alternate plans, that an alternate plan be filed
6 in a sort of orative report that a simple vote of a majority
7 present ought to be enough to enact a law. I think there's 8 a good deal of reason for not requiring, on a lot of issues,
9 that a majority of all the Members and --

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller, this would not re-
11 quire an alternate to be phrased, inasmuch as the change
12 is simple. It's just a majority of those present instead
13 of a majority of those elected --

14 MR. MILLER: Just a note made that there is a 15 feeling of some Members.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: The report will certainly indi-
17 cate there were pros and cons and indicate there was a
18 substantial feeling by those present. Any further dis-
19 cussion on the question?
