

1 Draft was changed as follows: The first sentence is exactly
2 the same. The second sentence, All impeachments shall be
3 tried by the Senate, but no person shall be convicted
4 without the concurrence of two-thirds of all the Senators.

5 Now, we were asked to add this point: Judgment
6 shall be removal from office and may include disqualifica-
7 tion from holding any office of public trust. This was our 8 assignment.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Could I suggest to you that you
10 say, Upon conviction, judgment shall be?

11 DR. BARD: All right, good.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Because judgment might be 13 acquittal.

14 JUDGE ADKINS: The judgment wouldn't be removal
15 from office, in any event. The judgment would be guilty as 16 charged. The punishment would be removal from office.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, I'm not so sure of that.
18 The verdict would certainly be guilty, but in criminal
19 practice, isn't the sentence the judgment of the Court?

20 MRS. BOTHE: There's a judgment and a sentence.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think you call it judgment
