

1 in criminal practice. You call it sentence, but it seems
2 to me that is the judgment.

3 MRS. BOTHE: The judgment is guilty, the sen-
4 tence is whatever --

5 THE CHAIRMAN: The verdict is guilty.

6 MR. SYKES: The verdict is guilty and the judg-
7 ment is conviction and the sentence is mechanical.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Can we leave that to the Committee
9 on Style? Dr. Burdette. Any further questions as to 10 Section 16?

11 MR. MARTINEAU: I guess I do have a question.
12 And may include disqualification. Is this to be by general
13 law or is this in each separate judgment?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: As phrased, it would be part of 15 the judgment.

16 MR. MARTINEAU: Except if they change it to,
17 The penalty shall be -- if they change it to, Upon convic-
18 tion, the penalty shall be removal from office and may in-
19 clude -- that, it seems to me may be included by general
20 law or by the specific vote upon the particular case. I 21 would assume you mean the particular case, they could make up their minds.
