

1 clause of the first sentence of Section 16. Before you vote
2 on that, I'd like a minute, because I am somewhat concerned
3 about the Judiciary.

4 I take it, Mr. Martineau, that the removal pro-
5 visions in the Judiciary Article would be all encompassing?
6 There would be no power of impeachment of a Judge?

7 MR. MARTINEAU: Any consideration I've ever seen
8 of the removal power of the Supreme Court over other Mem-
9 bers of the Judiciary is always stated as being in addition
10 to the power of impeachment, not in substitution thereof.

11 MR. SYKES: That's right.

12 DR. BARD: The word removal is used rather than 13 impeachment.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I'm just wondering whether this 15 would change it? I don't know that it would.

16 MR. SAYRE: Well, impeachment, as such, yes.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: The present Constitution has a
18 different provision with reference to Judges. It says, in 19 Section 4, of Article IV: Any Judge shall be removed from 20 office by the Governor, on conviction in a Court of Law, of 21 incompetency, of wilful neglect of duty, misbehavior in
