

1 more in keeping with the nature of the way the territorial
2 report was unfolding.

3 On the other hand, we would like to make it
4 clear that we are submitting a second text, which you have 5 in your hands, so that it would be -- and which we're 6 calling Continuation of the Seventh Report of the Committee
7 on Legislative Department, so that it would be easy enough
8 for the Convention itself to adopt unicameralism, if it so 9 desired.

10 In a sense, then, our report submits two recom-
11 mendations and we feel very strongly that earlier papers
12 that we have submitted in our deliberations should be for-13 warded to the Convention as a whole, so that they might be 14 prepared to have the arguments in terms of both sides.

15 MR. SYKES: It is nigh onto noon this Sunday,
16 and I venture to suggest that whatever vote we take here
17 today, with some eight or more Members of the Commission
18 absent, that vote on this delicate question is going to be 19 surely reconsidered at some meeting of the Commission which 20 has a greater number of Members present, and I would suggest 21 that this question be made the third special order of
