

1 the last suggestion to a vote, we will exercise the 2 privilege of the Staff and say that the matter of the de-
3 cision of the Commission, whether it recommends unicameral
4 or bicameral, will be on the agenda at an early portion of 5 the next meeting, which is Monday a week, Monday, the 24th.

6 Let me remind you that the Commission has here-
7 tofore decided that it will include as alternate recommenda-
8 tions provisions for both a bicameral and unicameral Legis-
9 lature. The Committee has drafted and you have with you in 10 your report a complete draft of the Legislative Articles 11 pertaining to unicameral Legislatures. This would not be 12 a complete listing of all changes which would be necessary 13 throughout the Constitution, which we recommend with the 14 unicameral Legislature. Other Articles and other informa-
15 tion would be necessary.

16 However, it is important for you to read over
17 and understand the provisions of this Article with reference
18 to a unicameral Legislature, for two reasons. One, so 19 that you can see in terms of actual language how it would 20 operate and, secondly, so that we can move quickly when we 21 consider that language, because regardless of which of the
