

1 providing the machinery for the Convention.

2 As you can see, this is a very heavy agenda,
3 but I think if we move briskly as we did at the last
4 session, we can complete it.

5 All right, let's now proceed to a consideration
6 of the Third Report of the Committee on State Finance
7 and Taxation.

8 Mr. Case?

9 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman and Members of the 10 Commission, this Report involves two sections or Articles
11 of the Declaration of Rights, so far as affirmative 12 action is concerned, and there are other negatives which 13 I shall discuss subsequent to consideration of the 14 affirmatives.

15 The first affirmative is, and I might say
16 parenthetically that the affirmatives have taken the form 17 of complete recasting of Articles 14 and 15 of the 18 Declaration of Rights in the present instance and for 19 reasons I will indicate as we go through this. Fourteen 20 is relatively simple and embraces one principle.

21 Fifteen is much more complex, and I am sure,
