

1 school board which is certainly not a legislative body
2 would have the power if granted the power by the Legisla-
3 ture?

4 MR. CASE: They are not representatives of
5 the people.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: There are some that are elected.

7 MR. CASE: They are elected, yes, but they are not
8 representatives of the people. They are elected to do
9 a specific job on the school board.

10 DR. BARD: Some States they are. They actually
11 set the school tax.

12 MR. SCANLAN: That still doesn't make even
13 them the representatives of the people.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: That is the point I want to have
15 brought out, that the Committee's recommendations mean
16 only elected representatives of the people in the technical
17 sense, meaning representative for all purposes so that
18 you do more nearly mean legislative than anything else.

19 MR. CASE: Right.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Mindel?

21 MR. MINDEL: Dick, I heard you say something
