

1 more than the present language.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Let's have your suggestion
3 again.

4 MR. SYKES: And such classification may be
5 based upon the agricultural or open space use of property.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

7 DR. BURDETTE: Would that include the subclassi-
8 fication?

9 MR. SYKES: Such classification would include
10 then classes and subclasses.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: You second, Dr. Burdette?

12 DR. BURDETTE: I second.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Give us the language again.
14 And such classification --

15 MR. SYKES: -- may be based upon agricultural 16 or open space use of property.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Any comment, Mr. Case?

18 MR. CASE: No, I think the Committee has
19 worked hard on this language, and thinks it ought to be
20 the way it is written here, and I will let it go to a
21 vote.
