

1 States. We stuck it in for that reason. It could per-
2 haps be read to be equivalent to our proposed Section 3,
3 but it has never been so construed.

4 The other two merely exhort the Legislature to 5 do what they have done in the case of the University,
6 but do not mandate it. Therefore, we see no purpose
7 served by including them, and of course, it is exactly 8 the opposite to our intended purpose in the language of 9 the suggested Section 3 which was, of course, debated
10 at some length at the last meeting. I think everyone on 11 the Commission understands the difference between con-
12 stitutional degree of autonomy.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions? Any 14 further discussion of the Special Report? If not, I 15 will recognize Mrs. Bothe to move a reconsideration of 16 the vote by which Section 3 was deleted.

17 MRS. BOTHE: I so move on behalf of the Mis-
18 cellaneous Provisions Committee.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: The motion does not require a 20 second and will be submitted without debate. Ready for 21 the question? All those in favor of the motion to re-
