

1 of these suggestions that would eliminate the implication
2 of complete autonomy?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: I am not sure that we can con-
4 sider all of them, but if this motion is defeated, then
5 any motions to amend Section 3 will, of course, be pre-
6 sented by anybody who desires to do so. If the motion
7 is passed, then I suppose one could offer any one or 8 more of these as substitutes. It would not be amend-9 ments because Section 3 would not be there, but I would 10 assume one way or the other, the substance of some of 11 these proposals at least could be put before the Commis-
12 sion.

13 Mrs. Bothe?

14 MRS. BOTHE: I wasn't going to make any com-
15 ment, and this won't be long, but since Mr. Scanlan
16 has spoken and our Honorable Chairman also, I thought 17 there were perhaps a few things that should be said. The 18 first, of course, which was debated at the last meeting
19 were the implications of Section 3, and the word, autonomy, 20 is not used literally in that Section; one, because its 21 meaning is ambiguous and two, because there was no
