

1 THE CHAIRMAN: I understand. But you would
2 want both words?

3 DR. BARD: Well, it might otherwise mean State
4 private institutions, and you don't need that really.
5 I guess, Mr. Chairman, I think you have convinced me
6 that you really don't need both. State will do.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe?

8 MRS. BOTHE: That is agreeable with me.

9 MR. SAYRE: My other question simply relates 10 to the meaning of this additional provision. As I 11 interpret the meaning, it is merely putting into the 12 Constitution a guideline that is non-enforcing, actually, 13 isn't it? I mean, this is what the Legislature already 14 can and would so, isn't that right, to the statute, and 15 I just don't see where --

16 DR. BARD: I would like to get back to the 17 point the Chairman made. Placing this in the Constitu-
18 tion sets forth a direction. As you will recognize,
19 this comes from Mr. Eney's structure. It sets forth a 20 direction and not just a perfunctory guideline. It 21 makes it clear that this is where we stand in regard to
