

1 favor signify by saying aye. Contrary, no. The 2 ayes have it. So ordered.

3 Third recommendation.

4 MR. SCANLAN: Third recommendation is one
5 that deals with the compensation that would be 6 recommended in the Enabling Act for the delegates who 7 attend the convention. There seems to be a great
8 variety of precedents here. In Michigan, for instance,
9 the delegates were paid a thousand dollars a month
10 up to a maximum of $7500. You will recall I said the 11 Michigan convention terminated after seven and a half
12 months. When the compensation ran out, the convention
13 finally came to an end.

14 On the other hand, I believe in Rhode Island
15 they are paying them nothing and they are getting 16 what they paid for.

17 In Connecticut, which seems to be a more 18 helpful precedent, they pay the delegates what the 19 members of the General Assembly of Connecticut got.

20 Basically that is our recommendation.

21 Actually, I see we have slightly underestimated what