

1 the Committee's recommendation. Now, the effect of the 2 Scanlan motion would be to completely reverse that,
3 completely reverse it, and to put the University of 4 Maryland right back where it was before we voted. Now,
5 one of the people who voted for the autonomy of the Uni-6 versity had to leave his note here, but has --

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Has anybody left?

8 MR. CASE: Mr. Smith has left, and I think
9 this is a monstrous thing. We are all grownup people 10 here, and the majority of the Commission has voted for 11 it.

12 MR. MILLER: As a matter of personal privilege,
13 I am not playing games, and I asked the Chair for a rul-
14 ing, and I got it. I don't think it ought to be changed 15 just because the ruling satisfied me, but if it hadn't
16 been for that, I would have offered a motion to substi-
17 tute this proposal.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller, the Chair does not 19 think you are plahing games or have any desire to think 20 so, nor does the Commission think so.

21 MR. SYKES: Mr. Chairman, I would suggest that
