

1 University. I think the thirteen Members of this Com-
2 mission in voting that way, have voted for the University
3 type, the type autonomy for the University as embraced
4 in that particular provision.

5 Now, there have been motions and counter-
6 motions, paring and counter-paring, but it seems to me,
7 Mr. Chairman, that the sensible thing to do is to find 8 out, as I thought we had found out, how many people on 9 this Commission favor autonomy for the University of 10 Maryland, if that word is used in the context we have 11 here. Let's have done with this motion, counter-motion,
12 what I call playing games. No commission I have ever
13 sat on in this State has ever decided a basic problem
14 by parliamentary maneuver, and that is why I said, let's 15 grow up a little bit, and try to find out basically what 16 the Commission wants.

17 If the majority of the Commission is opposed
18 to autonomy for the University of Maryland, then let's 19 register that opposition and go on from there and do our 20 work. If the majority of the people here in this room 21 favor it, let's accept that and likewise go on with the
