

1 Constitution, I believe this would be acceptable to all
2 concerned and certainly will not in any way discourage 3 our continued growth.

4 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman?

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second. Dr. Jenkins?

6 DR. JENKINS: In reply to Mr. Scanlan's
7 statement, I do not consider the motions we have passed,
8 Section 3 and the amendment, to be unduly discriminatory
9 against the State colleges at this point, at least.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Scanlan, Mr. Brooks calls
11 my attention to the fact in reading your motion as amended,
12 I said public institutions of higher education. He said
13 he thought you agreed with Dr. Bard it should be State 14 institutions.

15 MR. SCANLAN: That is correct.

16 MR. CASE: I should like to ask a question,
17 Mr. Chairman, either of you or Mr. Scanlan. Under the,
18 under Section 3 of the Committee's Report, the only
19 autonomy really that the University would have received 20 would have been the right to expend monies, budgeted to 21 it, as it thought best in the operation of the institution,
