

1 I was opposed to extending it to any other State insti-
2 tutions. I am opposed to extending it any further. I
3 believe profoundly that by recognizing the University
4 of Maryland as an autonomous institution, it goes far 5 beyond the interest of education, and in the interest of 6 the welfare of the State as a whole, and for that reason,
7 I favor it and only it being given constitutional
8 autonomy.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion? You
10 ready for the question?

11 MR. SCANLAN: Mr. Chairman?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second. You ready for 13 the question?

14 Mr. Scanlan?

15 MR. SCANLAN: I want to say one word. It has 16 been some time since we debated the provisions of 17 original Section 3, and as Mr. Sykes reminded us, during 18 the course of his remarks and to date, Section 3 is at 19 cross purposes with its own.

20 Mr. Case impliedly assumes that this really 21 grants a great deal of constitutional autonomy, yet the
