

1 phrase, in accordance with law, suggests that the General
2 Assembly of Maryland has significant and perhaps the 3 same powers they now have over the University. Our pro-
4 vision, as we have provided in the pending motion, at least 5 has the advantage of clarity, and as Mr. Sykes says, 6 defining the relationship of the General Assembly and 7 defining that relationship in accordance, in relation 8 to the governing bodies of the various institutions.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Debate is closed
10 now.

11 MRS. BOTHE: I feel to allow the debate to 12 close on the Committee that composed the proposed
13 Section 3 --

14 MR. SCANLAN: Point of order.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second. Go ahead,
16 Mrs. Bothe.

17 MRS. BOTHE: The words, provided by law, as 18 the Committee proposed them, and if there is anything
19 wrong with our use of them, the language should be cor-
20 rected and not the sentiment, meant the law would have 21 to comply with the second phrase of Section 3 which
