

1 including the legislative leaders, I will not mention
2 names, were in favor of unicameralism when questioned
3 and also in polling people, as Mr. Mindel says, I found
4 that they liked this idea and finally, I would like to 5 state that we in the Commission could be trailblazers.
6 We could lead the people in a case of this type.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard?

8 DR. BARD: Mr. Chairman, I would like very
9 much to have the views of Dr. Michener and Dr. Winslow
10 who have made special studies in this area. Might I
11 have the privilege of asking them to comment?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: We will ask those as soon as
13 the other Members have stated their position.

14 Mr. Bond?

15 MR. BOND: First, I would like to just clarify
16 what Mrs. Freedlander said. I am positive from personal
17 experience that different Houses can introduce different
18 bills pertaining to the same subject, and that matter is 19 resolved.

20 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Appropriation bills, for 21 instance, in the House of Representatives. Either one can
