

1 introduce the appropriation bills in the State Legisla-
2 ture.

3 MR. BOND: Also I think it was overlooked in the 4 discussion, it is proposed that the Senate be a smaller,
5 more pliable, I use the word to mean more flexible, and 6 your House would be a large body representing, having 7 many more representatives and be somewhat in closer 8 contact with the people, perhaps. I was persuaded at 9 sometime during this discussion, when I believe Governor
10 Lane, I am sure it was Governor Lane, but I will let him
11 speak for himself, in his opinion he felt it was something
12 to be gained from the checks and balances. All of us
13 who have shepherded bills through the House and through 14 the General Assembly know that there is certain gain and 15 benefit from two looks, and often our best legislation
16 is changed for the better at the second look and upon 17 amendment. For that reason, I am going to vote for bi-18 cameralism.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Clagett?

20 MR. CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I would like to 21 state my position, and it has been one I have arrived at
