

1 I think for all practical purposes in the smaller body of 2 the General Assembly those Counties are going to be un-
3 represented, and I think this is one, to me, one of the 4 great dangers of having a Senate which will have to be 5 represented ^{by} multi-County districts; and I would much
6 prefer to have just one House in which the representation
7 can be on as low a basis as possible; and just my last
8 point, which is just completely opposite of what Judge
9 Adkins has said, I think that with the fact of reappor-
10 tionment, those people who want to have a bicameral
11 Legislature, it seems to me, have the burden of proof 12 here, and I really have tried very hard in all the 13 debate that has been going on, involving bicameral and 14 unicameral Legislatures, to find out some reason which 15 would justify the keeping of a bicameral Legislature;
16 and I certainly have not heard any arguments which have 17 any, carry any weight as far as I am concerned with the 18 keeping of a separate House of the General Assembly with 19 all the problems and all the expense that goes along 20 with it.

21 So for that reason, I am going to vote in
