

1 with the advice and consent of the Senate?

2 MR. ADKINS: We haven't answered that 3 problem specifically but I think again our feeling is 4 no, that it would not be with the advice and consent of 5 the Senate. Our basic thinking will, when we come
6 down to that precise problem will be that the Governor 7 will have the right to hire and fire the heads of 8 major departments without reference to confirmation by 9 the Senate.

10 DR. JENKINS: Do you feel these are in a
11 sense cabinet officers in the sense that the Director 12 of Welfare is not? Don't you feel that this has been 13 a valuable safeguard in the Federal organization?

14 JUDGE ADKINS: You mean to have confirmation
15 by the Senate?

16 DR. JENKINS: Yes.

17 JUDGE ADKINS: I think perhaps there are 18 many pros and cons on that question. We feel at the 19 State level the heads of major departments should be 20 responsive to the Chief Executive and we don't feel 21 that, of course, none of the heads of major departments
