

1 through, so there is not the buck passing. In this last
2 legislative session --

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Sayre, you are a minute
4 over your time.

5 MR. SAYRE: I am trying to go as fast as I can.
6 In the last legislative session, sixteen bills passed
7 the Senate, passed on down to the House, as unconstitu-
8 tional. They said, We will let the House catch that. The 9 House did catch it. Senator Duerr said, I want the 10 Speaker to know that the House passed unconstitutional
11 matters proposed by the Senate. To sum up, I think that 12 we should lead off with what we regard as logical and 13 that we should take this step for discussion so that if we do
14 decide that this is a more favorable way to do legisla-
15 tion, there is time for the public to talk about it.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Winslow?

17 DR. WINSLOW: Mr. Chairman, I should like to 18 suggest as a political scientist that I am not intending 19 to prophesy. I have no intention of suggesting where 20 we will end up if we adopt unicameralism, because I
21 don't know. But I should like to point out that virtually
