

1 the Chairman would have to break the tie.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: It would be 12 to 12 with no
3 recommendation.

4 Any further discussion of the question of
5 unicameralism?

6 DR. BARD: Mr. Chairman, it is clear that
7 this close vote will be called to the attention of the 8 Convention.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Oh, yes indeed. All the close
10 votes are going to be noted in the Report, and the al-
11 ternate, of course, will be here, and I want to not
12 leave the subject until we have considered the alternate.

13 Mrs. Bothe?

14 MRS. BOTHE: Dr. Bard's remark just now con-
15 fused me; the vote we took in no way reflected any
16 recommendation regarding partisan or nonpartisan repre-
17 sentation?

18 THE CHAIRMAN: No, I don't think so.

19 DR. JENKINS: The record should show that on
20 the merits of unicameralism and bicameralism, the majority
21 of the Commission is undoubtedly in favor of bicameralism.
