

1 ment in that case the same way as we will in the basic
2 recommendation on bicameralism.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Miller?

4 MR. MILLER: Have we ever decided whether
5 these things are going to be three-fifths or two-thirds?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: That is on the agenda for this
7 session. There is a memo, and we have picked out the 8 instances in which there is one or the other. We hope
9 to decide that before this meeting is over, but not this
10 afternoon.

11 Any further discussion on unicameralism?
12 Any question about the draft of the Legislative Article
13 based on unicameral Legislature? Well then, that, I think
14 concludes that special order of business.

15 The next special order of business is the 16 Sixth Report of the Committee on Political Subdivisions.
17 In connection with that draft, there is another memo;
18 there are two other memoranda, one called a staff memo, and 19 the other called a proposed draft. Let me say a word as 20 to the proposed draft, so it can be identified. This
21 represents my efforts, so if you put the initials H.V.E.
