

1 minutes ago, you can imagine where you get bigger and 2 bigger, and you can take over the whole State without 3 having the people who are taken over at all vote in 4 favor of it. As it gets bigger, all you need is a
5 majority. To put the thing in proper focus, I would move
6 that the paragraph that we are now discussing and appear-7 ing on Page 2 be amended to provide that, whenever a new 8 County shall be proposed to be formed out of portions of 9 two or more Counties, the consent of the majority of the 10 legal voters of such part of each County or Counties
11 respectively shall be required.

12 MR. MARTINEAU: I second it.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: The consent, read that again,
14 the consent, what?

15 MR. CLAGETT: That puts us back where the 16 existing constitutional provision now stands, and the 17 Committee discussed this at quite some length and de-
18 cided against that, because it injects into the picture
19 a degree of too much inflexibility.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I didn't get it. You are re-
21 quiring the vote of the part to be transferred or the
