

1 before you would certainly be in order. The pending
2 motion is, in effect, to delete the paragraph and put 3 something else in place of it.

4 Dr. Bard?

5 DR. BARD: Would the maker of the motion be 6 willing to accept this addition, as well as the consent
7 of a majority of the voters from which the disjointed
8 section comes? Now, that may not be legal category, 9 but it gets at the heart of what troubles me, if by 10 way of illustration there should be segmentation from the 11 outer rim of Baltimore City and the City finds itself
12 in great difficulty because the inner portion is alone.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Case?

14 MR. CASE: No, Mr. Chairman, I wouldn't accept 15 that, because it goes to a different point than the 16 point that my motion seeks to make. It is entirely 17 different.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

19 Mr. Sykes?

20 MR. SYKES: I would just like to say that this 21 motion, if it passes, it seems to me that you can throw
