

1 we will pick up the motion that is pending before us and 2 move on from there. Is there any objection to that 3 procedure? If not, Mr. Clagett, I think you have perhaps 4 covered sufficiently the second paragraph of Section
5 11.01 (b), but I don't think you have covered it suf-
6 ficiently as desirable perhaps as the first paragraph 7 of 11.01(b). Could you pick up there, and then run
8 through the rest of the Article?

9 MR. CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I am going to ad-
10 here to what you have requested that I do primarily by 11 reading what we have proposed as the local government 12 the of/Article. Rather than try to diverge too much from the 13 actual language and give an explanation because I think 14 actually as we consider the actual language in front of 15 us, the explanation will be built in rather than accept-
16 ing my explanation, and then going back to the language.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, I would suggest that you 18 permit questions with respect to each paragraph, but just 19 hold back on the motion.

20 MR. CLAGETT: With respect to Subsection (b)
21 which I have already read, I want to point out that the
