

1 definition as time and circumstances require.

2 MR. MINDEL: You don't think it would be appro-
3 priate to put in a definition now?

4 MR. CLAGETT: I don't think so. Attempting 5 to define it now, it would be unduly restrictive.

6 MR. BOND: The word, transferred to another
7 civil division, transferred by whom, by legislation, law 8 or how?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: That if you will hold it, it
10 will be clearer later on.

11 MR. CLAGETT: Let me explain. After we 12 failed to come up with it on the agenda for about four 13 times, and some of those metaphors, Mr. Eney said, Well, 14 you have got a great big job yet to be done, and you
15 better go ahead and do it, so we disagreed with him
16 because we thought we had already done it; and we decided 17 we would have a meeting at the Maryland Club, and we 18 all met there and who should walk through the door but 19 Mr. Eney. We were there until midnight that night, that 20 was Tuesday night, so he said, Well now, have you arranged 21 when you are going to meet again, and that happened to
