

1 provide that, any elected representatives of the people,
2 as we talked about earlier today.

3 MR. CLAGETT: I point this up only for your 4 consideration, since we are digesting this. By the 5 broad grant of power in Subsection (a), there is no
6 restriction upon the County in the exercise of the tax
7 power. Now, if the County enters into an agreement, as 8 later provided under intrastate intergovernmental agree-
9 ments in another Subsection here, with another County, 10 they could delegate and carry out the very thing that 11 you are speaking about here. In this Section, Subsec-
12 tion (d), we are providing for the General Assembly
13 creating these intergovernmental --

14 MR. CASE: That is not what I am talking about.

15 MR. CLAGETT: I know what you are talking about 16 You mean it would be a representative, that the power
17 to impose and collect taxes would be by a representative
18 government.

19 MR. CASE: No. They have the right to collect
20 taxes imposed by any body of elected representatives
21 who have the authority to impose taxes in the area that
