

1 by a majority vote of its elected members may propose by 2 resolution that the County become a charter County and 3 that (a), all charters be prepared by the means it
4 specifies. Upon the completion of the proposed charter,
5 it shall be published and made available to the quali-
6 fied voters and submitted to them at the first general
7 election after the first 30 days after publication.

8 If adopted, it will be subject to the same 9 constitutional limitations and privileges as those 10 charters first submitted by a charter board. However, 11 if at a general election, there shall be submitted to 12 the voters of the County a proposed charter drawn by a 13 charter board, only that charter shall be submitted.
14 If the charter board proposed charter is adopted by the 15 voters, any charter drawn by a means specified by the 16 County governing body shall not be submitted to the 17 voters and have no further effect. If a charter drawn
18 by the charter board is rejected by the voters, and a
19 charter drawn by the County charter board --

20 MR. SYKES: Mr. Chairman, pardon me, Section 21 11.02 gives Home Rule in effect by saying that the
