

1 MRS. FREEDLANDER: And we said by joint resolu-
2 tion because we did not want to start this local law
3 again, so after hours of talking, we said we agreed that 4 this would be by joint resolution. We ought to change,
5 by law, because I think your minutes would show, John.

6 MR. MILLER: How would an existing corporation
7 change its charter if it wanted to? An existing 8 municipal corporation. How could it change its charter 9 if it wanted to?

10 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Only with the consent of the 11 County.

12 MR. MILLER: It just says, it refers to new 13 corporations.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I think you've got an irrecon-
15 cilible conflict between the two sentences, but I think 16 we need to get the Committee's recommendation clear,
17 and then we can work on the language.

18 MR. BROOKS: If I may interrupt. Alternative
19 to the Staff document is the elaboration of what I under-
20 stood to be the intent of the Committee, the (a) Section
21 is precisely what you already have, and the (b) Section
