

1 Bowie --

2 MR. CLAGETT: Which annexed which?

3 MR. CASE: Bowie and Bel Air. I wrote the 4 charter, but I would be sorely perplexed if this went 5 through.

6 MR. CLAGETT: We recognize this is not with-
7 out its difficulties. Section 11.05, Intrastate Agree-
8 ment. I would like to have inserted intrastate, inter-
9 governmental agreement. Any County, other civil 10 divisions, or municipal corporation may, except to the 11 extent prohibited by public general law, agree with the 12 State or with any other County civil division or municipal 13 corporation for the joint administration of any of their 14 functions and powers and the sharing of costs thereof.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions?

16 Mr. Case?

17 MR. CASE: To me this is again another serious
18 one. Does this mean a County could agree to bargain
19 with its tax power. It is certainly the function of the 20 County.

21 DR. BARD: Except to the extent prohibited
