

1 by public general law.

2 MR. CLAGETT: Which will be the brake --

3 MR. CASE: Suppose it is not within the
4 general law?

5 MR. CLAGETT: Can you make your question a
6 little more specific?

7 MR. CASE: Can they?

8 MR. CLAGETT: Bargain away in what way?

9 MR. CASE: Well, could a County say to a
10 municipality that within the confines of the municipality
11 you can levy and collect County taxes?

12 MR. CLAGETT: Where would that differ from 13 what it is doing now? It is concurrent power between 14 the two now.

15 MR. CASE: The County collects the City taxes
16 now. It is the other way.

17 MR. CLAGETT: Isn't it concurring? They both
18 collect them at present.

19 MR. CASE: But the City does not collect
20 County taxes.

21 MR. CLAGETT: The Court of Appeals has
