

1 its own creatures to bargain with one another. Couldn't
2 the Legislature, by general law, do exactly this?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: This goes one step further.

4 MR. CASE: Why do you have to put anything like
5 this in the Constitution?

6 THE CHAIRMAN: This authorizes the Counties
7 to do it.

8 MR. CLAGETT: And it is a useful tool. It
9 would be very useful in many situations.

10 MR. CASE: I just wondered.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Hargrove mentioned police
12 powers. Baltimore City, Anne Arundel and Baltimore County
13 may have one police force right now.

14 MR. HARGROVE: State Police right now.

15 MR. SYKES: Could I ask a question about the 16 whole draft? I think I know a little more about the 17 problems involved in that draft. We also have before us
18 a Staff memo dated October 14, 1966, Staff memo dated
19 October 24, 1966, and a proposed draft by, I understand
20 it was drawn by the Chairman. It seems to me since we 21 are engaged in giving ourselves the necessary overall
