

1 and Mr. Martineau when they say that however urgent
2 this problem may be a constitutional mandate is not the 3 way to solve it. It should be solved with the legislative 4 mandate operating within permissive constitution
5 limitations.

6 I support the Committee's view.

7 DR. JENKINS: The difficulty I find with the 8 so-called skeleton arrangement is that the whole thing
9 is so indefinite that we seem to say that we will set
10 up five or less or fewer definite regions or departments
11 but no two people on this Commission would agree on 12 exactly what these regions are to do or these regional 13 organizations or their form of government.

14 We leave that to the General Assembly. It 15 seems to me that we should authorize this by the 16 General Assembly and let the General Assembly set up
17 their whole procedure.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Brooks.

19 MR. BROOKS: First I think, well, let me
20 clarify one difference between the staff memo and the 21 one Mr. Enay has prepared which sets forth specific
