

1 announce any further meetings or any further business?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: No, I think we will have to 3 do as I indicated at the beginning, ask you to keep 4 the date of November 21, ask you not to swear at me
5 when you get a call.

6 Now each of you, I think, has a copy of 7 a memo from Mrs. Wiegand to me, dated October 19. And 8 on the upper right corner it says extraordinary vote
9 of the Legislature provisions in proposed articles of 10 new Constitution. Now these, I think, represent the 11 complete list. Section 8, the extraordinary vote for 12 what was formerly called the emergency law, that is 13 a law that is subjected to a referendum would take 14 effect notwithstanding was three-fifths. It is not 15 noted on the memo. Three-fifths was the vote required.

16 DR. WINSLOW: Does this then provide that 17 under the present agreement there is no such thing
18 as a suspension of a law on the basis of a petition.
19 Is that what the decision was?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: No, the decision was that 21 the law will not be suspended in the event of a referendum
