

Commission.

R. MILLER: A question, Mr. Chairman. Considering practically all of the later y votes just arbitrarily pick one or the t it announced that our progress would, ably would have one uniform figure?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, and that is the purpose mission to decide whether we want it if not, what vote we want in each case. These actions heretofore were only

R. MILLER: I would like to move at this e make it uniform regardless of whether irds or three-fifths.

THE CHAIRMAN: Wait a minute and let me go then I will recognize you. Legislative s a two-thirds vote to keep the in Session an extra 30 days, three-fifths -thirds for the Legislature to call itself

R. BARD: We thought it was two-thirds when
