

1 through this. We originally had the office of justice
2 or judge, and we changed it to judicial office.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: But not all the way through
4 because we still use the term in a few places at the
5 end, for instance, retirement, Section 11, each judge
6 shall retire -- I suggest that this could create an
7 ambiguity because I am not certain that a master is not
8 the holder of a judicial office.

9 MR. MARTINEAU: My preference would be, to
10 avoid any confusion, to consistently use the word
11 judge throughout, that there would not be this 12 confusion.

13 DR. WINSLOW: But you cannot say a vacancy
14 in a judge, so what you will have to say is a vacancy
15 in the judgeship.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: You can say the office of
17 judge, which they have had before.

18 DR. WINSLOW: Is the term office of judge
19 any more restrictive than a judicial office?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: I think so.

21 MR. MARTINEAU: I don't know that it is.
