

1 There would be less difficulty with it.

2 MR. SYKES: How about a vacancy on the
3 court?

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I am not sure of that.

5 MRS. BOTHE: I was going to bring up a
6 different subject.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Can we leave it to the
8 Committee to remove the doubt?

9 MR. MARTINEAU: Yes.

10 MRS. BOTHE: I want to back up a little
11 further, because since, on Page 6, the Commission, I
12 suppose everyone recalls, made the amendment, which is 13 underlined on Page 6, about a person to be eligible could
14 either be the person who practiced law in or was a
15 resident of a particular area.

16 Several lawyers have pointed out to me that 17 the requirement on Page 30, the Superior Court and 18 District Court have at least one judge, there be at 19 least one resident judge in each of those two cases,
20 that might create some confusion now that we have pro-
21 vided that a judge could in some instances not live in
