

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Then we would eliminate that.
2 Your choice is going to be between designation by the
3 Legislature, designation by the Supreme Court, and half
4 by each. Again moving in the same way, how many would
5 favor half by the Legislature and half by the judiciary.

6 MR. BROOKS: Seven.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: How many would favor designation
8 either by the legislative or by the judicial branch
9 but not half by each, one or the other?

10 MR. HOFF: What?

11 MR. HARGROVE: Let's take one at a time.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: How many would favor
13 designation of the entire panel by the Supreme Court?

14 MR. BROOKS: Six.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: How many would favor designa-
16 tion of the entire panel by the Legislative?

17 MR. BROOKS: One.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: It seems to me what we have
19 come to is that we are almost an equal division on
20 designation either by the Supreme Court or half by each.

21 MRS. BOTHE: I don't know if anybody has
