

1 means they shall continue and by use of may, instead of
2 shall, it means they can be amended.

3 MR. SAYRE: Unless and until.

4 JUDGE ADKINS: No further comment.

5 MR. CLAGETT: I would move we substitute the
6 word may, for shall.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you accept it, Judge Adkins?

8 JUDGE ADKINS: No. That defeats the whole
9 purpose of the proposal. I don't want to be arbitrary.

10 DR. BURDETTE: Judge Adkins thinks this gives
11 them broader powers of the Constitution?

12 JUDGE ADKINS: Yes.

13 MR. SAYRE: Do I understand that we can't
14 go beyond a, you said of 11.04? Isn't that what you
15 are referring to? We surely can incorporate a charter
16 government could continue as it is, under Section 11.03(a)
17 and therefore, I am not sure that I would confine it to
18 just this part of the Constitution, pursuant to what you
19 said. I would almost say, pursuant to the provisions of 20 this Constitution.

21 MR. HAILE: May I ask whether Baltimore County
