

1 DR. BARD: I would like to offer one
2 suggestion and perhaps it doesn't conform with this
3 motion, but it seems to me the committee may have a
4 feeling that there are greater numbers who favor going 5 along with the so-called compromise position which would 6 be to make the exception for Baltimore County alone
7 than I have.

8 I have a feeling that this particular
9 Commission believes that any principle that is set forth
10 should be applied broadly rather than to one county alone
11 and therefore I am suggesting that at some point before
12 we close this total discussion, we might have sort of a
13 unofficial feeling of the Commission in this one respect,
14 so that we might guide the committee in its deliberation.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, to not confuse the 16 issue, could we have that as a motion afterwards?

17 DR. BARD: Right.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Jenkins?

19 DR. JENKINS: Mr. Chairman, I oppose this 20 because I think we ought to make a decision now. I
21 don't know whether I'm just feeling mean today or whether
