

1 below the Committee's recommendation would not neces-
2 sarily hold in terms of the motion?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: That's correct.

4 DR. BARD: All right.

5 MRS. BOTHE: Mr. Chairman.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe.

7 MRS. BOTHE: I would point out that leaving
8 such a matter to the Committee on Style points up the 9 objection to the amendment in the first place because it
10 would simply be an excoriatory kind of a sentiment if 11 enacted with the amendment, and as such, to put it in the 12 judiciary or some other part of the Constitution would be 13 foolish, yet it is an inconsistent statement for the 14 Declaration of Rights. I think that's one reason that it
15 ought to be defeated.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion? Mr.
17 Mindel.

18 MR. MINDEL: Mr. Chairman, I asked Mrs. Bothe
19 at the lunch hour how we reconciled this Article with the 20 one in the Federal Constitution which provides for jury
21 trial in cases exceeding $20, Article VII.
