

1 and a Comptroller of the other party, you are in the 2 situation whether it be a Comptroller or any other Member
3 of the Executive for which the Governor is ultimately 4 responsible of establishing an office to which people
5 look for more than the conduction of the particular job
6 for which that person is elected; whichever party that 7 person is elected from will look to that person as a
8 political leader and as a chief of the party and as a
9 person responsible for doing a great deal more than car-
10 rying out the functions of that job, which otherwise are 11 really the responsibility of the top of the Executive 12 Branch.

13 I don't know, if you want a strong Executive,
14 that this is one of the things that you want to accom-
15 plish in achieving a strong Executive.

16 DR. BURDETTE: Mr. Chairman, I am disposed to 17 vote in this situation for a strong Executive, as a
18 principle, without any reference to current officeholders
19 who will not be affected by what we do here, save as 20 they might be affected for some future term of office,
21 as I would understand the probabilities of our schedule.
