

1 latitude. They certainly couldn't adopt the standard
2 that there was no basis for it at all. I should think 3 the court could interfere with it.

4 Somebody offered a question.

5 DR. BURDETTE: The word adjudicated appeals
6 to me a little bit because I think that to get down to 7 brass tacks, most of us are mentally incompetent at 8 some time or another about something but we haven't been 9 convicted of it, so to speak, and I should think -- 10 this is surely not a very serious matter. There are 11 a whole lot of people of bad judgment that could do 12 more damage than mentally incompetent. I would rather 13 go for every possible protection. I don't know what 14 it is. If adjudication is it, I would be for it.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further comment?

16 MR. SAYRE: The model says under the 17 legislative section, in determining the population of 18 each district, inmates of such public or private 19 institutions as prisons, other places of correction,
20 hospitals for mental patients, other institutions housing 21 persons who are by law disqualified from voting, shall
